It will help to achieve "Zoom-Zoom" feeling!!

The fifth-generation Familia was released in 1980. The popular compact car was Mazda's first vehicle to use front-wheel drive. Well-loved for its sporty design and driving dynamics, the fifth-generation Familia set a new production record when it reached one million models in 27 months. Equipped with an electrically operated sunroof, the highest-grade Red XG received overwhelming approval, especially from young people. The fifth-generation Familia was named the 1980-1981 Japan Car of the Year.

MAZDA R360 COUPÉ

Let's paint colors and draw pictures on the car body. It will help to achieve "Zoom-Zoom" feeling!!

Launched in 1960, the R360 Coupe, a micro-mini that seated four, was Mazda's first passenger car. The model was a huge success, thanks to its design and the fact it was the lightest car produced in Japan. Furthermore, with a very low sticker price of 300,000 yen, it helped change the public perception of cars as luxury goods and fulfilled many people's dream of owning their own car.
